LIVE COURAGEOUS.
INSPIRE GREATNESS.
Presented by Justin Maust

The Caro Rotary Club and the Caro Chamber of Commerce have joined forces to present this great leadership training opportunity!

Justin has a passion to develop leaders, inspire teams, and build powerful world-changing legacies. He is a certified speaker, trainer and coach for the John Maxwell Team. His business, athletics, and youth leadership experience provides him a unique ability to connect with any audience. His personal “hold nothing back” style will challenge you to live life full of passion and stay focused on your mission.

Justin will help energize your organization while living out his own legacy. His skills, passion, and strong network of professional resources will help any team transform their culture to improve the effectiveness of the entire organization.
